Dear Mom & Dad,

It was nice talking to you on the phone last night. The package at the post office was not from you but contained the plane tickets for our trip. I'm sure the shirt will arrive soon - thank you because I go through a lot of tennis shirts!

It is raining tonight and we have seen some lightening. The weather is cool but should start warming up soon. We're anxious to see Mary next week and will show her a good time. Of course, you get to keep your little girl for a whole week!

I'm enclosing an article of interest. Would you like to visit this spot? Love, Jim & Vickie
